3.6 Proxies. A director entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy executed in writing by the person or his attorney-in-fact. A proxy shall not be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless a longer period is expressly stated.

ARTICLE IV-DIRECTORS

4.1 Subject to these by-laws, the full and entire management of the affairs and business of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors, which shall have and may exercise all of the powers that may be exercised or performed by the corporation.

4.2 The Board of Directors shall consist of seven (7) members who shall be the Superintendents of the following school districts in the State of Georgia: Glynn County School District, Candler County School District, Wayne County School District, and Long County School District, Coffee County School District, Lowndes County School District, Vidalia City School District and a representative from each site, as they may be established, of the Coastal Plains

Education Center to be chosen by the remaining members of the Board from among alumni or active community supporters of the school. The members of the Board who are not superintendents shall serve such terms, not to exceed two years, as may be established by the Board upon their appointment. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum is present, the acts of a majority of the directors in attendance shall be the acts of all of the Board. If the superintendent of one of the school districts is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, he or she may, but is not required to, designate an alternate which he or she may empower to vote in his or her stead.

4.3 The Board of Directors shall meet at least annually and on such other regular occasions as it may set and determine at its organizational meeting or at any time thereafter. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the Chairman or by any four of a majority of the superintendents then serving as directors after at least 24 hours notice to all other members of the Board. Notice of any such meeting may be waived. Attendance in person at such meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice thereof. Any meeting of the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Georgia at such place as may be determined by the Board.

4.5 The Board of Directors shall conduct all of its meetings in compliance with O.C.G.A. § 50-14-1, et seq., known as the Georgia Open Meetings Act.

ARTICLE V-OFFICERS

5.1 The officers of the corporation shall consist of a Chairman, a Secretary, and any other officers deemed necessary by the Board. The officers shall be elected or designated in accordance with policies or procedures adopted by the Board. In the absence of such policies or procedures, the officers shall be elected at an annual meeting of the directors and shall serve for a term of one (1) year and until their successors are elected. The chairman must be a member of the Board of Directors, but the secretary and any other officer deemed necessary by the Board may, but is not required to, be a member of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors, by majority vote at any annual or special meeting, may fill the place of any officer which may become vacant prior to the expiration of his or her term, such appointment to continue until the expiration of the term of the officer whose place has become vacant.

5.2 The Chairman shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the corporation and shall have general and active management of the operation of the corporation. She or he shall be responsible for the administration of the corporation, including general and active management of the financial affairs of the corporation, and shall execute such documents as may be authorized by the Board of Directors. She or he shall borrow money on behalf of the corporation only pursuant to specific authority from the Board of Directors.

5.3 The Secretary shall keep minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and have charge of the minute book and seal of the corporation and shall affix it to any instrument requiring it, when directed by the Board of Directors. He or she shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as may from time to time be delegated to him by the Chairman or the Board of Directors.

5.4 Whenever an officer is absent or whenever for any reason the Board of Directors may deem it desirable, the Board may delegate the powers and duties of an officer to any director.

ARTICLE VI-SEAL

6.1 The seal of the corporation shall be in such form as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. In the event it is inconvenient to use such a seal at any time, a blank seal with the corporation's name printed therein, or the signature of the company followed by the word "SEAL" enclosed in parentheses or scroll shall be deemed the seal of the corporation. The seal shall be in the custody of the Secretary and affixed by him or her on such papers as may be directed by law, by these by-laws or by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII-AMENDMENT

7.1 These by-laws may be amended at any meeting of the Board of Directors by the affirmative vote of a majority of all of the directors serving on the Board at the time of the amendment.
